JUDGE PARKER'S LETTER.

Justice Parker's letter is a clear-out, straightforward presentation of the real issues in this campaign, without any resort to subterfuge or misrepresentation, such as we had in the letter of his opponent. It is mainly, forceful, without bombast, free from cheap tricks, fair and honest. The case of the democratic party as made by its platform and its record is fully presented. The man who is honestly seeking the issues in the present campaign will find them here.

The democratic nominee pays especial attention to four great questions, though he makes reference to others. These four are: Tariff Reform, Imperialism, Economic Administration and the Public Service. A very considerable amount of space is devoted to these two latter issues because it is apparent to every man who has come in contact with the great business interests of this country, by which is meant not only the big interests but the business interest in a broad sense, that these are the points upon which the present administration record is weakest in the popular eye.

With regard to the questions involved in what has been popularly termed "imperialism," Judge Parker points to the enormous centralization of the government with the tremendous addition of the power of the executive which has followed and very aptly says that this issue, "which has been thrust upon the country, involves a decision whether the law of the land or the rule of individual caprice shall govern." It could not have been put better.

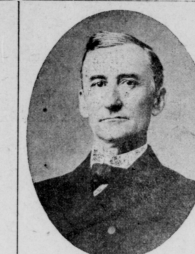

Judge Parker points out that the republican cry that the revision of the tariff must be given over to "the friends of the tariff" is met by a counter cry in the democratic platform that revision and gradual reduction shall be by the friends of the masses and for the common weal, and not by the "friends of its abuses, its extortion and its discriminations. The relation of an over-protecting tariff to the creation and maintenance of the trusts is made clear.

"President McKinley," Judge Parker points out, "undertook honestly to carry out the purpose of the act," so far as it bears upon reciprocity; but the powers now in control of the republican party have repudiated his words, and the friends of reciprocity can hope for nothing from them.

Judge Parker shows that the democratic party stands for the American merchant marine, which it will aid by all proper legislation, but not, by subsidies; he shows the part the democratic party played in bringing about the readmission of the civil rights to the west, and picturing the magnitude of the work which must be done and the vast amount of money which must be expended through officers of the government, he points to the grave necessity of capable and honest administration, with no possibilities of graft.

The refusal of the republicans to permit investigation into the executive departments of the government and the facts that such investigation

Will be at Court-House, Columbia, Ky., Oct. 7 and 8th, at night.

"His Black Mammy Reared Him"

The most distinguished private colored citizen of Pulaski county said as follows to the Somerset Journal man: "George Stone is close to the mountain negroes. He was reared from a baby boy by a black mammy, and in all his career as a lawyer he has never refused to defend a negro he believed to be guilty, whether paid or not; and nobody ever heard of him prosecuting a negro he knew in his younger days. The colored people have had nothing to do with this Hunter-Edwards scum and a hundred of them will support George Stone on election day."

commerce, in the absence of United States statutes specifically covering the case. Such is the law of the land." In conclusion, Judge Parker epitomizes the campaign issues in those few questions: "Shall economy of administration be demanded, or shall extravagance be encouraged?" "Shall the wrongdoer be brought to bay by the people, or must justice wait upon political expediency?" "Shall our government stand for equal opportunity, or for special privilege?" "Shall it remain a government of law, or become one of individual caprice?" "Shall we cling to the rule of the people, or shall we embrace beneficent despotism?"

These are the questions which the American voters will ask themselves. Remembering that the democratic party has ever been the party of the people, with Judge Parker, we await the people's verdict. "With calmness and with confidence."—Atlanta Constitution.

MINERAL WATER.

It Has Been Recently Found on the Farm of J. C. Morrison, Taylor County.

This well is on the Campbellville and Greensburg pike, five miles from the former place and seven from the latter. The well is six feet deep and the water is as cold as a person would want it. It is situated on Mr. J. C. Morrison's place, who is making preparations to send a few bottles.

The following gives a full explanation: Agricultural Experiment Station, State College of Kentucky.

Lexington, Ky., July 29, 14.554.—Mineral water sent by J. C. Morrison, Campbellville, Taylor county, Ky., July 15, 1904. The sample was received July 21, 1904, in pint bottle. The water smelled strongly of hydrogen sulphide and there was a deposit of sulphur in the bottle.

ANALYSIS.

The water contains 239.9 grains of solid matter to the gallon, composed mainly of chlorides and sulphates of sodium, calcium and magnesium, some calcium carbonate and traces of iron, potassium and lithium compounds and a trace of borates. The water contained also a very considerable quantity of hydrogen sulphide. Is very good saline sulphur water.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce that Hon. T. H. THURMAN, of Washington county, is a candidate for Circuit Judge in the district comprising the counties of Green, Taylor, Marion and Washington, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Since the editor of The Columbia Spectator was treed on his own proposition, and since our questions touched nothing else except the proposition at issue and required answers that he refused to give, he cries out that we are writing from a malicious standpoint. In his last issue he says: "The News, does not discuss Judge Parker's letter of acceptance at all, but devotes a column and a half to malicious, personal insinuations against The Editor of The Spectator. Its stock of petty spite and invective seems to be abundant; but, considering the source of this article, and remembering that the readers of both papers are acquainted with the facts, we will not be diverted from our course, having other and greater duties before us. The average reader of our county papers know the difference between sarcastic personalities and argument; knowing that the one is prompted by a heart of malice and the other is indulged in by those who are attempting to discuss live issues of the hour." Now, Mr. Editor, the battle was of your own choosing. You opened the ball by pointing out our inconsistency as appeared to you, and stated that we should be supporting the Populist nominees to be consistent. Had you read and obeyed that scriptural injunction, judge not, that ye be not judged, you would not have had a single paragraph directed against your support of Mr. Hunter and your support of Mr. Edwards. You undertook to administer some medicine to us, but when you were given a few spoonfuls under the old directions, "shake well before using," you cry out that back of all is malice on our part. You may indirectly bid for sympathy and dodge the issue, but the intelligent people of this community know that our article did not contain an unfair question nor intimate an insinuation that missed the mark when applied to your political life. We have no apology to offer and no harmony plea to enter for our position last week. You were held to the original proposition, in our article, but refused to measure up to your opportunity if you are at heart for pure political methods regardless of your own political fortunes. You have denounced Democrats in almost every conceivable manner. You stood for Hunter when he was on the big side; you joined the Edwards forces when it was clear that they were on the hand wagon. You have denounced frauds as vehemmentally as any man in all this country, when directed against the part or party to which you cling, but have never unearthed anything but righteousness in your own camp. We have no more confidence in your sincerity for pure politics than we have in the average peanut-politician, notwithstanding your loud protestations to the contrary. You have appeared before the country, denouncing frauds with Goliath-like audacity, but never standing in one place long enough for a stone to hit you. If there is one man in this entire country who likes the big side above all other considerations we are impressed that you are that man. You may preach political purity. You may seek to impress the people that you love country above your party, that you will always approve the right and condemn the wrong, and yet it will take salt to make it palatable with us. We did not touch your personal life and have no desire to cast one insinuation against the sacredness of your honor and standing as a gentleman. It is your political position, your off and on, your do and don't attitude that is at issue. Your standing as a respected christian gentleman, your enterprising spirit are not molested. You are our County Judge, and so far as we know, one of the best in the State. We have heard that your political position was not of your own seeking, but a case of the office seeking the man—a condition that indicates the strong political standing you have with your party and the profound respect and admiration the entire people have for you as a competent man. You can yet answer our questions and put yourself on record. You denounced the Democrats for throwing out the vote of some counties when contesting for State offices. Why is it a crime for us to ask you your opinion of throwing out the vote of Bell and Leslie counties and giving Mr. Edwards the nomination? If you believe it right to purchase a nomination, why conceal your opinion, if not, then explain how your candidate received his nomination without the taint of fraud? Your reference to the source of our article, attempting to discredit honorable standing, will not count for much in this part of the country. We are both known by the people of this section.

Acting Governor W. P. Thorne has pressed down upon his own brow the rebuke and censure of the people of Louisville and, in fact, the best people of the State, by pardoning Buchter, a Louisville life convict. We can not see any just reasons to warrant the liberation of such a criminal, and Gov. Thorne's statement is not sufficient to justify his acts. Evidently he was the victim of a plot that touched the heart and unbarred the prison doors, but he is as it were, the full creature it is receiving. It is as much the duty of a Governor to pardon as to refrain from it, but in every case a full investigation should be made and not lightly esteem such a high and almost sacred prerogative. Gov. Thorne must bear the responsibility of his own acts.

No paper was ever sent out by a candidate for the Presidency that received more favorable comments than did Judge Parker's letter, published last Monday week. It is not often that Republican metropolitan papers say anything favorable to a Democrat, but many of them admit that this letter is a strong State paper. Every body should take the two letters—the one issued by Roosevelt, the other by Judge Parker and carefully read them. One is full of boasting, the other in a plain, systematic way tells the people what the country needs. All Democrats are perfectly satisfied with Judge Parker's utterances.

Hon. David G. Colson, who represented the Eleventh district in Congress, and was a Colonel in the Spanish-American war, died at his late home in Middleboro, last Wednesday night. He was a brilliant young man, one of the leaders of the Republican party of Kentucky, and was socially popular throughout the State. He was married about three years ago.

The pardon of Clem Buchter, the Louisville murderer, by Lieutenant Gov. Thorne, has met the disapprobation of the whole State. Thorne's political tombstone has been placed.

A GOOD WOMAN DEAD.

We desire to extend our sympathy to J. and E. S. Faulkner, of Jamestown, who was bereft of his estimable companion last week.

She was a lady of culture and Christian character and was greatly missed. With her husband and children she had resided in Russell county about thirty-three years, but was a native of Pennsylvania, as was indicated by the friends gathered about the tomb to many the last sad rites over the remains of the departed.

The surviving children should now strive the harder to comfort the father in his declining years. She who had been his counselor in prosperity and in adversity, and who had nursed him there to await the coming of her earthly loved ones. In the home circle her accustomed place is vacant; it cannot be filled, but the husband and children continue to live in the fear and admiration of the Lord it will be a reunited family. We recently extend our condolences to the members of the stricken family.

The meeting at Zion Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, J. P. Scruggs, assisted by Rev. Hugh Bell, of Summerville, Ky., closed Wednesday night after nine days of good sound gospel preaching. As a result there was one convert, many others interested about their eternal welfare and many of the members aroused to renewed energy in the Master's work.

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Last Friday night at 9 o'clock the residents of Columbia were notified that Mrs. Mary Patterson was dead. The end came at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Luther Williams, Montpelier, where the deceased had been for six months. Her home was in Columbia and about six or eight months ago she received a stroke of paralysis from which she never recovered.

Mrs. Patterson was a daughter of Montgomery and Susan Russell, and was born and reared in the suburbs of Columbia. She was a lady of culture, possessing all those noble traits of a Christian character that go to make up a true woman.

At the close of the civil war she was married to Capt. O. B. Patterson, a popular gentleman, and with him she lived happily until his death which occurred about 11 years ago. Her husband was a farmer, and the greater portion of her married life was spent out of Columbia. In the various communities in which she lived she was known for Christian piety and loved for her many deeds of kindness.

She is survived by five children, three sons and two daughters, and three brothers and one sister. Two of her sons reside at Jamestown—W. B. and A. D. Patterson. The former is a merchant, and the latter is cashier of the Bank of Jamestown. The third living son, Jo P., is a contractor at this place. Her brothers, Jo, J. M. and J. O. Russell and sister, Miss Kate, reside in Columbia. Mrs. Luther Williams, Montpelier, and Mrs. S. P. Miller, who lives a few miles from town, are surviving daughters.

The funeral services were held at Montpelier Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, many relatives and friends being present. Upon the conclusion of the services the remains were conveyed to the place where they were interred in the family lot in the city cemetery, Friday last.

Mr. Patterson was a zealous member of the Presbyterian Church, the religious services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. C. Clemens.

To all the surviving relatives the News is in sympathy.

WILL BE MARRIED IN LOUISVILLE.

Mr. M. L. Grissom and Miss Rosa Flowers; Mr. Geo. A. Atkins and Miss Emma Browning, two popular and highly respected couples of Adair county, were married yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon at the Willard Hotel, Louisville. Immediately after the ceremony they left the city for the World's Fair.

Mr. Grissom is a merchant in Blue, and is a gentleman of honorable standing, having friends throughout the county. His bride is a niece of Lieutenant Governor Hindman, and is one of the best highly enjoyable and that their lives may be devotedly spent so long as they may be permitted to live.

There are ten acres of land, more or less, on left of Glasgow road, just outside the corporate limits of Columbia, for sale. This land can be divided into building lots or it can be sold in lots of several acres. Also some land on right of the road leading from Columbia. For information call on J. E. Murrell at Adair County News office.

It is not common to find sweet-potatoes in bloom and few people are aware of this fact, yet they are blooming. Last Monday Mr. Delaney Robinson sent two vines to this office in full bloom. Mr. Robinson was informed by Mr. S. H. Pike that he had gathered the seed, planted them and raised sweet potatoes.

Wanted, a well drilled. Apply to W. F. Jeffries.

FAVORS A RE-UNION.

EDITOR NEWS:

It has been suggested that a meeting be had of the old settlers of Adair county. It really seems that such a meeting would conduce to the happiness of all her citizens. To meet and talk of old times and the many stirring events would be a great pleasure to the old, and perhaps entertaining and interesting to the young. Our county is one of which we should feel proud. She has produced many sons, who have achieved fame at the bar, on the bench and in the halls of legislation. We, therefore, owe it to their memory to meet and extol the virtues of those who have preceded us to the "great unknown." Let us by all means inaugurate a movement that will result in a meeting of the old settlers of Adair county and have many of our sons come from the West and other sections of our country, that we may meet them, perhaps for the last time in life.

MASONIC ELECTION.

Columbia Chapter, No. 7, Royal Arch Masons, on last Friday night, elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

T. R. Stiles—High Priest.

Sam Lewis—King.

D. Lowe—Scribe.

W. B. Bradshaw, Capt. Host.

E. G. Atkins—P. Sojourner.

W. D. Jones—R. A. Captain.

N. V. Hall—Third Veil.

J. P. Scruggs—Second Veil.

Jo Russell, Jr.—First Veil.

Honore Jeffries—Secretary.

N. V. Hall—Treasurer.

J. H. Grady—Sentinel.

The year just closed has been a prosperous one for this branch of Masonry, and the new officers start with the determination to keep up the growing interest.

We desire to state that we believe, from observation, that the Adair County News does ten times more work per person than any other office in this section of the State; and that no other print-shop has, at any time, interfered with its progress. Our business is increasing all the time, which leads us to conclude that we are giving entire satisfaction. There is not a county paper in the State that outstrips us in advertising patronage, due to our large circulation. To better express the extensiveness of its circulation, we quote a traveling man who was here several years ago, in the corn crop. Owner will please call and get it and pay for keeping; also for this notice.

J. M. Turner.

Mr. Alvin Sinclair, who is building on "Boomer Heights," will complete his residence this week.

Dr. B. T. Wood, who has probably owned more froaks of nature than any man in the country, has another one in the show window of a main street grocery. It is a melp twenty-six inches in length and twelve inches in breadth, perfectly round and smooth and of a yellowish color with green stripes. Last season Dr. Wood planted four new seed, which he had saved from the year before, in one hill and when they appeared above the ground he thinned the hill down to two vines. On one vine a well developed cuskup appeared, while on the other was this curious looking melp. He says he never purchased a new seed of any kind and is positive that the ones he planted came from a single melp—Danville Advocate.

Mr. H. N. Steel, a well-known gentleman in this section, who travels for the sale of the Martin Tobacco Company is reported missing in St. Louis. When last seen he had upon his person several diamonds and about three hundred dollars in money. His home was in the suburbs of Louisville and was in St. Louis to see the Fair. He was here a short time since, and three weeks ago he was in Monticello. Mr. Steel has showed up, but robbed.

Every man should protect those who are dependent upon him with some life insurance. See J. E. Murrell.

REAL ESTATE.

Is changing hands rapidly at good prices. If you want to buy or sell or lease or see or write to Stults & Tutt, Real Estate agents.

Quite a number of delegates and ministers while enroute to Franklin last Wednesday, were robbed at Bowling Green by pickpockets who were following Sells Bros. circus. When the train stopped there was a jam and the light-fingered gentry easily got in the back. Rev. C. R. Payne, of this place, and the Business Manager of the Lindsey-Wilson, was relieved of $52.00 and the Rev. T. J. Williams, of Burkesville, of $18.75. Another gentleman stated that he had lost one hundred dollars. R. W. Edwards, of Louisville, was relieved of $35.00 and $200 in coupons.

Perhaps the largest real estate deal ever made in Columbia was closed last Wednesday afternoon when Mr. John N. Conover sold Mr. J. B. Barbee the large brick hotel in the north-west corner of the public square. The consideration for the house and furniture was $10,000, cash. Mrs. M. E. Marcum will continue to run the hotel. The building is comparatively new and has been a popular house of entertainment since it was opened five or six years ago.

Has it ever occurred to the citizens of Columbia the amount of wealth some of our new comers have added to the town? An estimate has been made and it will not fall far short of $75,000. Men representing this capital have come into our midst for the purpose of making Columbia their permanent home, and will be ready at any time to assist in advancing the interest of the place. We are glad to have them and will welcome all other good citizens who want to cast their lots with us.

Mr. W. F. Jeffries bought from Mrs. Eliza Willis her residence on Burkesville street for $2,500.00. This is one of the best houses in town, being conveniently located and ample territory to have some of the country charms. Mr. Jeffries and family will be domiciled in their new home early in November.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Mt. Carmel, Saturday and Sunday, October 8 and 9th. Let all the officials be present.

A FORTUNE HUNTING ARMY.

Under the mysterious influence of the present Federal administration, the work of Europeanizing our American institutions goes merrily on.

This time it is the army. Major General Henry Clark Corbin, commander of the department of the east, has incorporated in an official report a strong recommendation that officers of the army be not "permitted" to marry without the sanction of the secretary of war, who must be shown that the income of the prospective bridegroom is eminently sufficient for the support of a family.

In short, the efforts of the army must, should the Congress recommendations be approved, turn themselves into fortune hunters. This is the rule in the German army where the Kaiser exercises paternal and restraining influence upon his officers. It is the rule in some of the European armies. Is the American army to be Europeanized in this precise way?

If so, General Corbin should make his recommendation a little more specific. What price shall he put upon the heads of blushing young lieutenants, of mere militia captains, of staid and sober old colonels? For certainly no officer with a salary less than that of a brigadier could, under the conditions of society contemplated, afford to take a wife just because he happened to love her. A colonel's salary is but $3,850 a year; how long would such a pittance sum as that last in the whirl at Washington or Newport? Perish the thought that a colonel, even though he does not attain that rank until he is somewhere in the vicinity of fifty, should have the temerity to think he can take a wife on such a salary!

In the past, it is true, it has been one of the boasts that army society has not been measured by money; even now there are old fogies, like General Chaffee, for instance, who scout the suggestion that the war department should be turned into a matrimonial bureau; but such men and such ideas are back numbers, as the saying goes. Why for the new regime! Hail the process of merry Europeanization!

No officer of the army should marry until he gets to be a major general and can find a girl with a million!—Atlanta Constitution

KANSAS

NEOBERA, Sept. 21, 1904.

EDITOR NEWS:

The last News containing Melvin L. Whites letter reached us on the 17th inst. This is very good for later to be written in Shelby, N. C., on the 10th and then to Columbia, Ky., and to be published and then reach us in Kansas on the 17th. I like to read friend L. Whites letter very much and would like to say to Comrade David and all other of my old Adair county friends that are now scattered through out the United States, that I am still holding forth on the same farm I settled on in the year 1850. I have done lots of hard work since I have lived here and my sympathies have always been with the working people.

And I have observed that the workers of this country do not have a fair chance with the men of large Capital. I have therefore come to the conclusion that this competitive system of government will have to give way and that a co-operative commonwealth will have to be established in its place which is socialism. If you will grant me the price M. E. 109, I will tell you many things that will aid our valuable work. I understand socialism to be. Socialism is collective ownership by all the people, of all the means of production and distribution and all the things upon which the people depend for comfort, happiness and life. Many things may be privately owned; but nothing useful for human comfort, happiness and life should be monopolized.

Under socialism all the people can be employed, and every one needs a just equivalent for his toil, goods will be produced for use, not for profit, and no one can monopolize the necessities of life. Private monopolies will pass away, and the people become owners of the means of production and distribution. There will be certain rights of individual ownership, yet to be defined and determined by majority vote. There are several classes or schools of Socialists.

1st. Communist—those who think nearly everything should be owned in common.

2d. Utopian—who have pictured high ideals of a Socialistic state, but are charged by others with having no feasible plan of reaching the end in view.

3d. Class-conscious—who claim that the only way to reach Socialism is through the struggle of the wage earning class against the capitalist class. They think the Bourgeois or middle class will become Socialists until the trusts have crushed them into the wage earning class, and that they will become class-conscious.

4th. Revolutionary—those who believe the movement is necessarily revolutionary either in thought, philosophy or force. They do not necessarily mean a bloody revolution, but a radical change in the form of government and society.

5th. Evolutionary—those who believe Socialism to be the result of certain causes, as (1st) improved machinery which makes capital and labor (2d) the gifts of intelligence, culture and sympathy. (3d) The intensification of the spirit of democracy, &c.

6th. Christian—those whose in the teachings of Christ and his Apostles principles which if carried into practical effect led to Socialism. They claim that Socialism and Christianity are altruistic, while competition and capitalism are egoistic. They believe that we can never convert this world to Christ while the present system stands.

7th. Selfish—There are two classes of selfish. Socialists, who have happened to love her. A colonel's salary is but $3,850 a year; how long would such a pittance sum as that last in the whirl at Washington or Newport? Perish the thought that a colonel, even though he does not attain that rank until he is somewhere in the vicinity of fifty, should have the temerity to think he can take a wife on such a salary!

WORK IN SPANISH-AMERICAN.

The necessity of preserving peace and of maintaining the rights of nations in the Spanish-American republics has practically been forced upon the United States by our desire to maintain the Monroe doctrine. The necessity of a medicine that would absolutely cure stomach and bowel disorders led to the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, over fifty years ago. To-day, it is looked upon as the great American remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, poor appetite, constipation, dizziness, heartburn, headache, liver and kidney troubles or malaria, fever and ague, and because it has never been known to fail, doctors never hesitate in prescribing it to their most delicate patients. They also advise sickly women in need of a tonic and regulator to use the Bitters. We urge all sickly men and women to try a bottle at once.

The October WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION makes good the boast that it is an "all round" magazine. Besides an array of special interest to women in Fashion, Home Entertainments, Quizzes, etc., there is no unusual number of timely features. Leta Fairchild writes on "The Furry Side of a Pined Complaint"; there are four unusual unparaphrased paragraphs of the President-elect; David H. Black to his "A new kind of life with Dr. J. H. Smith"; "For some latest information as to how to get on the 'big' Mexican Robertson, the well-known writer of sea-stories, has a thrilling description of the submarine boat. "The Power Making Terror of the Seas. The great-serial, "The King of Diamonds," begins in this number, and there are excellent short stories by J. L. Hartour, Sara Amherst and Gilbert Wilson. Published by The Crown Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio, one dollar a year; five cents a copy.

ODD MENTION

Be young & good; do not worry about how good a man your grandfather was. Do not talk an hour to a new man, time is worth more than talk. Keep the axes clean and oiled, dry or clogged axes and double or treble the work of a team.

It is easier to plug up a plow than to stop up a leak made by a cannon ball. The time to save the dollars is when the pennies are coming in. Now for the World's Fair; if you can afford it. If you do, my pay has a good time and get home safely. No harm done if you skip the pike.

Do not wait until the storm bursts before you unbolt from the plow, or, like Peter Tumbler, until the lightning strikes the grain cradle out of your hand. Quit in time.

All right to put a dollar in the bank once in a while; but do not forget to store up a kist in the heart of the little man and little woman as you go along. Kisses are worth more than dollars any day.

Any more sweet corn or other garden stuff than you used for your own use? Lots of folks in town who would begin to beg for it.

Becky and truly, you should make the advertisements in this paper All are in season and signed by honest men who will do an honest business with you.

All chunks, sticks, pieces of rail and posts, worthless lumber, in fact every thing which will burn, should find a way to the wood-pile. These things will not only be useful here but will also be out of the way and they are both annoying and unsightly when scattered about. Brush too small for fuel may be used to stop gullies; if you are so unfortunate as to have them, if not it is best to pile and burn it.

SENTENCE SERMONS.

Nothing convinces like conviction. A live sinner needs to wear no symbol. Love usually tries to hide its noblest deeds.

A white life preaches louder than a black tie.

Things that are almost right are altogether wrong.

No man finds himself until he is willing to be lost.

A little elbow grease is worth a lot of oily phrases.

Most moral influence comes from apparently small virtues.

The perfection of a sermon often prevents its application.

The rightness of a thing does not depend on its wryness.

A man is not firm in faith because he is fertilized in mind.

Living in the past only puts the spotlight on the rear platform.

A man is never happy until he has ceased to care whether he is or not.

One does not have to be crusty in nature to give a crust to the crusty.

An honest laugh may have more reason in it than the most pious lecture.

Making a time card for others is not the same thing as taking the train yourself.

"Trail" has taken on a new form. It is something new, something different.

CHEAP LANDS

For Home-seekers' and Colonies.

The country along the Cotton Belt Route in Southeast Missouri, Arkansas, Northwest Louisiana and Texas offers the greatest opportunities for Home-seekers. Mild climate, good water, cheap building material, abundance of fuel, and soil that will often in a single season yield enough to pay for the ground. Land can be bought as cheap as $2.50 an acre, prairie land at $4 and $5 per acre up, bottom land at $8 and $6 per acre up, improved or partly cleared land at $10 and $15 per acre up. Some fine propositions for colonies—tracts of 200 to 500 acres at $4 to $6 per acre—big money in this for a good investor. Fruit and truck lands in the famous peach and tomato belt of East Texas at $10 to $20 per acre up. Write us for information about cheap rates, excursion fares, all literature descriptive of this great country and let us help you find a home that will cost you no more than the rent you pay every year.
